On the other hand, the authors of the present study found that the use of the Internet for information seeking was not significantly related to the use of the Internet for social networking. This may be due to the fact that the sample was not representative of the general population, as it was composed of students who were likely to be more technologically savvy than the general population.

Do you own a rural bank? JPE wants BSP exec to answer

By Chelito D. Brando

MANILA, September 25.—Finance Minister Juan P. Araya today asked the Department of Banking and Finance to determine if the Philippine Rural Banks Association (PRBA) is a rural bank. He said the association is not a rural bank because it is not a financial institution. He said the association is a trade association and not a financial institution.

Araya, who is also the secretary of the Department of Banking and Finance, said he was asked by a group of rural banks to determine if the PRBA is a rural bank. He said the association is not a rural bank because it is not a financial institution. He said the association is a trade association and not a financial institution.

Wine unites Mt. Province townsfolk

By Dennis Gomez

Amongst the 150 to 200 residents of the small town of San Juan, the people are united by a common bond: the love of wine.

The town is located in the heart of the Cordillera region, where the people have been growing wine for centuries. The town is known for its beautiful scenery and its rich cultural heritage. The people of San Juan are proud of their wine and they are happy to share it with the world.

Dismiss graft cases vs me, Marquez asks Sandigan

By Special Reporters

MANILA (Philippine Daily Inquirer) — A former senator and a former congressman have filed a motion with the Sandiganbayan to dismiss graft cases against them, asking the court to consider their previous clean records.

The motion was filed by Sen. Juan Ponce Enrile and Rep. Manuel Villar Jr. They are among the lawmakers who have been implicated in various graft cases involving the use of public funds.

The Sandiganbayan, the anti-graft court, has been hearing cases against several lawmakers. The court has the authority to dismiss cases if it finds that the accused have no prior record of graft or other crimes.

The motion filed by Enrile and Villar Jr. is part of a series of legal maneuvers to challenge the court's jurisdiction over the cases. The court has previously ruled that it has jurisdiction over the cases, but the lawmakers' attorneys are arguing that the court should dismiss the cases based on the lawmakers' clean records.
